

RAISED FROM SICK BED.

After All Hope Had Vanished.

Mrs. J. H. Bennett, 59 Fountain St., Gardiner, Me., says: "My back used to trouble me so severely that at last I had to give up. I took to my bed and stayed there four months, suffering intense pain, dizziness, headache and inflammation of the bladder. Though without hope, I began using Doan's Kidney Pills, and in three months was completely cured. The trouble has never returned."

Sold by all dealers. 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

HE REMEMBERED.

"And did your uncle remember you in his will?"

"Well, he remembered me, all right, but that was why he didn't mention me in it."

WOMAN'S BACKACHE

The back is the mainspring of woman's organism. It quickly calls attention to trouble by aching. It tells, with other symptoms, such as nervousness, headache, pains in the loins, weight in the lower part of the body, that a woman's feminine organism needs immediate attention.

In such cases the one sure remedy which speedily removes the cause, and restores the feminine organism to a healthy, normal condition is LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND.

Mrs. Will Young, of 6 Columbia Ave., Rockland, Me., says:

"I was troubled for a long time with dreadful backaches and a pain in my side, and was miserable in every way. I doctored until I was discouraged and thought I would never get well. I read what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for others and decided to try it; after taking three bottles I can truly say that I never felt so well in my life."

Mrs. Augustus Lyon, of East Earl, Pa., writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I had very severe backaches, and pressing-down pains. I could not sleep, and had no appetite. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me and made me feel like a new woman."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration.

NORTHWEST NOTES

A blizzard general over that section struck Butte on October 2, six inches of snow falling, crippling telegraph service and delaying trains.

Joe Soelsby, motorman at Union Pacific mine No. 8, Rock Springs, Wyo., was badly crushed in the mine, and is in the hospital in a serious condition.

The coal mines of Wyoming resumed operations Saturday morning, September 26, when nearly 8,000 men went back to work. This undoubtedly marks the end of the strike.

Friends of Jerry Porman, the young Nebraskan who disappeared several days ago, are now satisfied that he was drowned in Brown's lake, and that his body is fast in the mud, says a Rawlins dispatch.

A work train on the logging railroad of the Chapman Logging company was wrecked about five miles west of Scappoose, Oregon. Five members of a repair gang which was riding on the train were killed and eight injured.

The thirty-fourth annual convention of the American Bankers' association, held at Denver last week, came to an end with the election of George M. Reynolds of Chicago, president, and Lewis E. Pierson, of New York, first vice-president.

The third annual state fair held at Wheatland, Wyo., despite the stormy weather, was well attended. The fair is now a fixture and preparations have already been made to make the next event even greater than the fair just closed.

In an altercation at Rawhide, Nevada, Jack J. Wall, formerly of Butte, Mont., seriously cut M. Daly, an Anaconda mining man, with a razor. Wall was arrested and taken out of town on account of threats of lynching made by Daly's friends.

Miss Elizabeth Kelly, principal of the public schools at Tacoma, Wash., for the past ten years, died at Pittsburg, Pa., in a hospital, from paralysis. Miss Kelly was en route from Tacoma to La Trobe, Pa., to visit a brother when she was stricken.

A sister of M. R. Preston, who was nominated for the presidency on the Socialist ticket and is serving twenty-five years in the state penitentiary at Carson, is in Reno for the purpose, it is said, of circulating a petition to be presented to the board of pardons when it meets, asking for the pardon of Preston.

In all probability the government will install an electric light and power plant at its big Shoshone dam, and furnish light and power to the surrounding towns. The power house will be built at Corbett, Wyo., and power will be generated from the water from the Corbett tunnel, which has a drop of over fifty feet.

With his arms tightly clasped about the neck of a large buck deer, which had died of a bullet wound, the body of George Buxton of Brockway, in the southern part of Oregon, was found in Olla canyon by a searching party. Buxton had evidently wounded the animal and was preparing to cut its throat when attacked.

A final settlement has been made between the Wyoming operators and the miners, and the papers have been signed. The wage scale is practically the same as the one in force prior to the strike, and regulations remain virtually the same. Concessions were made by both sides, and the Wyoming coal controversy is now ended.

The friends of Charles E. Hollibaugh have made application to Governor Brooks of Wyoming for a pardon for Hollibaugh, who was convicted at Buffalo of murder in the second degree in March, 1901, and sentenced to life imprisonment. The reasons for asking for Hollibaugh's pardon are not given by his friends.

At the headquarters of the Wyoming and the National Wool Growers' associations in Cheyenne it is announced that the fifth annual convention of the former will be held in Rawlins, Wyo., on Monday and Tuesday, January 11 and 12, 1909. The national convention will be held in Pocatello, Idaho, January 14 to 16.

Articles of incorporation were filed at Cheyenne last week for the Montana, Wyoming & Southern railway, with a capital of $5,000,000. The company plans the construction of a line from Sheridan, Wyo., to Miles City, Mont., and may also extend southward to the present terminus of the Colorado & Southern at Orin, Wyo.

A dispatch from Chicago says: Colonization of the western country will be materially retarded if the railroads between Chicago and the Pacific coast carry out a plan which has been advanced by the executive officials. Nearly every railroad in the Western Passenger association has agreed to abolish all low or reduced rates after January 1, 1909.

The joint conference of operators and coal mine workers in Helena reached an agreement to maintain the present scale of wages for two years. The operators had wanted a reduction, but agreed to the same scale, provided the contract was signed for two years.

The leading merchandise store of Rawhide, Nevada, was almost entirely demolished by an explosion of dynamite, and H. L. Gleason, proprietor, and his wife were seriously injured. A Lee has been arrested and lodged in jail on the charge of having caused the explosion.

Peter Dickerson, champion steer roper of Arizona, who was arrested at Cheyenne, charged with criminally assaulting Mrs. Ida M. Connors, principal of the South Cheyenne schools, was given a preliminary hearing and bound over to the district court in the sum of $5,000.

A Keen Nose.

Grandmother—Why is the baby so happy?

Nurse—Oh, his mother and father are coming.

Grandmother—I don't see them!

Nurse—Nor I, ma'am. But the child's nose is very keen. He smells the automobile, ma'am!—Harper's Weekly.

Showed Practice.

"You say she suspects that in years gone by her husband was a burglar?"

"She feels sure of it."

"Why, in the name of goodness?"

"Because, when he gets up at night to get the baby a drink he never falls over the furniture."—Houston Post.

Same Feeling.

"And haven't you ever taken a ride in an automobile?" asked the man with the new machine, pityingly.

"No," replied the plain person, "but I fell out of a third-story window once."

Arrange for Pure Milk.

Chicago has a medical cow. She was bought by a woman health department inspector, Dr. Caroline Hedger, to produce pure milk for desperately sick babies in a crowded tenement district, and, according to reports, this latest Chicago experiment in municipal ownership has been a great success. "I purchased the cow for the department," said Dr. Hedger. "I told Commissioner Evans I needed a cow to save the lives of the sick babies out my way, and he told me to buy one; so I did. Some friends of mine are taking care of her, milking her and taking the milk direct to the sick infants. It doesn't go through a dozen hands before it reaches the babies. We get enough milk to supply the babies of 14 families."

A Warning.

Handsomeness Percy Hasbrooke, the young chauffeur, drew the girl more closely to him.

"All the world loves a lover, dearest," he whispered.

But Lotta Golde's red lip curled somewhat skeptically.

"You haven't interviewed papa yet, Percy," she warned him.

With an ominous moaning sound the great car sped on.
